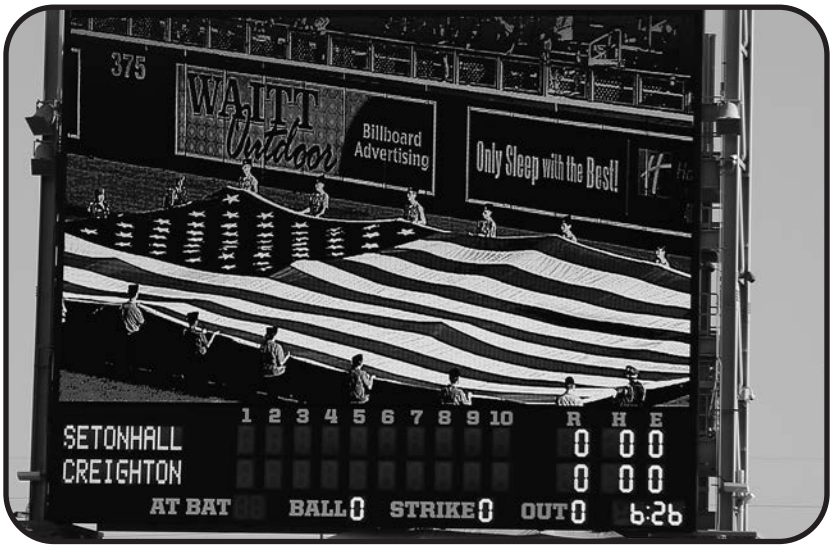
Charles Schwab Field Omaha

Making the Home of the MCWS Our Own

After more than 20 years in the CU Sports Complex, the Creighton baseball team moved into a new facility in 2011. Charles Schwab Field Omaha, located just a few blocks east of the CU Sports Complex, serves as the permanent home of the Creighton baseball team. Originally TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, the ballpark was renamed in December 2021 after Charles Schwab Corp. obtained the naming rights.

The $128 million facility holds more than 24,000 spectators. Charles Schwab Field Omaha, which sits just one block northwest of the home of Creighton men's basketball - CHI Health Center Omaha - also serves as the home for the NCAA Division I Men's College World Series.

Designed with the fans in mind, Charles Schwab Field Omaha has a 360-degree continuous walkway on the concourse level, with both permanent and portable concession stands lining the concourse. There are 36 inches of legroom between seats, turning the stadium into a bowl while eliminating the stacking effect that happens in many stadiums today. Club seating for 2,500 members and access to three, full-service food stations draws many groups and parties to the facility. The entire facility is accessible to people with disabilities and seating inside the stadium meets ADA standards.



"The cool thing about it [the stadium] is that it's completely sacred to college baseball." - Vanderbilt Head Coach Tim Corbin

Both the media and the athletes who make their way to Charles Schwab Field Omaha discover it is second to none. The playing surface includes a top-of-the-line draining system as well as heating features to ensure play in any type of Nebraska weather. The dirt base paths and grass infield and outfield gives the ball a natural bounce. Full-size dugouts down each line, complete with media pits, allow enough space for athletes and media to work side by side. Tunnels take players to covered batting cages and warm-up areas, followed by full locker rooms complete with coaches suites and training rooms just off the showers that provide the best amenities for all involved.

John Manuel, Former Editor of Baseball America

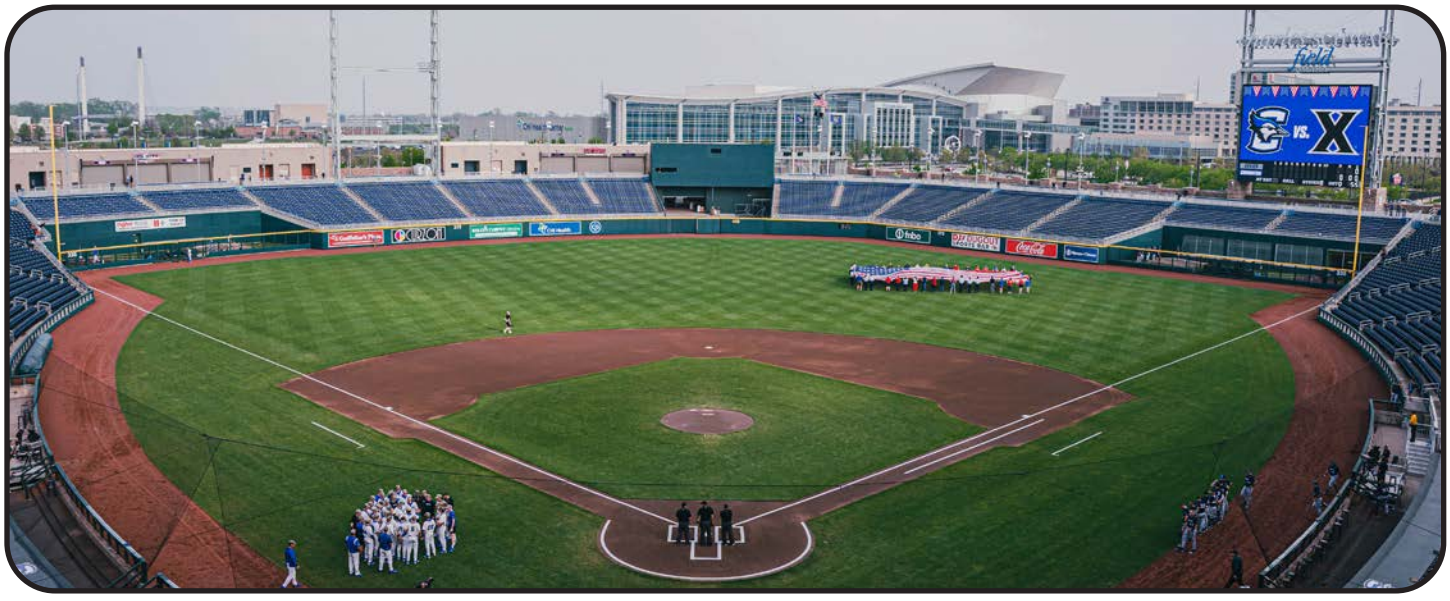
Charles Schwab Field Omaha

A media interview room as well as a workroom under the stadium provides working media a location to quickly generate and send out information through cables and internet functions built into the stadium. A three-tier working press box allows for plenty of seating come tournament time, with additional work cubicles located just behind the main seating. Five individual radio booths as well as the center television bay - complete with fully opening windows - gives all media members access to the angle they wish to cover for the game.

The Bluejays broke in the new facility on April 19, 2011, with a game against in-state rival Nebraska. Although it was a blustery night, more than 22,000 fans braved the weather to come out and get the first views at Omaha's newest attraction. The Bluejays averaged nearly 7,200 fans for the remainder of the 2011 home schedule, finishing eighth in the NCAA in overall home attendance. The numbers didn't disappoint once the Men's College World Series came to town, as 321,684 fans came through the turnstiles of Charles Schwab Omaha, averaging just under 23,000 fans per session.

Following the 2019 Creighton season, Charles Schwab Field Omaha hosted its first Major League Baseball game as the Kansas City Royals played host to the Detroit Tigers on June 13, 2019. In that game, former Bluejay Nicky Lopez launched his first career and the only Major League home run at Charles Schwab Field Omaha in the bottom of the second to give the Royals a 1-0 lead. Kansas City went on to win the game 7-3.



The 2024 squad presents a strong balance between 24 returners and 18 newcomers. One difference this season will be more options on the mound as the Bluejays will carry 21 pitchers as well as one position player that could see time on the mound.

Head coach Ed Servais enters the season with confidence about the depth and level of competition the Bluejays have in the field and on the mound.

Catchers

After delivering a team-high .314 average on the field, junior Hogan Helligso returns for his third season as the Bluejays primary backstop. Helligso will share some time with freshman Connor Capece from the Omaha area.

The Bluejays' third catcher will be a battle between freshman Mason McCurdy and redshirt freshman Cooper Fuchino.

Designated Hitter

Jack Grace will split time at DH and first base in 2024. The Illinois native had a breakout season with 11 home runs, 31 RBI and a .295 average. Grace did all this despite playing through nagging injuries throughout the 2023 campaign.

Servais noted that he sees the remaining time at DH will offer opportunities to Colby Canales, Zane Skansi and Matt Scherrman.

First Base

Will MacLean is expected to split time with Grace as well as Canales at first. A transfer from UMass, MacLean hit .308 with 32 extra base hits and 65 RBI over two seasons.

Senior Jack Grace

Second Base

The middle of the infield is an area that could be up for grabs, however Kyle Hess has stepped forward in the early portion of the spring. In his third year as a Bluejay, Hess looks to build on a 48 game season in 2022.

Backing up Hess is grad transfer Sam Vomhof, who hit .404 over four seasons at UW-Whitewater.

Shortstop

Nolan Clifford returns for his fourth season at short for Creighton. The Illinois native had his best season at the plate last year, hitting .263 with three home runs and 26 RBI.

Ben North will slide over from third if Clifford needs a break.

Third Base

North was stellar at the hot corner last season, making the dazzling play seem routine.

Backing up North is expected to be grad transfer Matt Schermann, who hit .366 over 128 games at UW-Oshkosh. Schermann smashed 24 home runs and collected 156 RBI in four seasons.

Left Field

Nolan Sailors will slide from center to left this season. Starting all 49 games last season, Sailors hit .271 with 15 doubles and 31 RBI.

Redshirt freshman Jack Torosian has separated himself as a fourth outfielder with a strong fall and spring.

Center Field

Tate Gillen returns to center in 2024. Gillen was the opening day center fielder in 2022, but was injured in the opening series. Last year Tate hit .299 over 34 games. Sailors will backup Gillen.

Right Field

Xavier transfer Teddy Deters is expected to open the season in right. Deters comes to Creighton with a .313 average over 26 games as a Musketeer.

Fighting for time will also be redshirt freshman Cuyler Zukowski.

Starting Rotation

Dominic Cancellieri and Cade Lommel are expected to return to the rotation in 2024. Cancellieri delivered an impressive performance late in the season, earning National Pitcher of the Week, retiring the final 21 hitters he faced.

The remaining starts will be a battle between transfer Chad Saner Jr., and freshmen Eli Nissen, Jack Pineau and Shea Wendt.

Bullpen

Servais has relied heavily on his bullpen throughout his 21 seasons. In 2024 that will remain, though he agreed that the focus will be more about getting the best pitcher to face the most dangerous hitters. As a result the closer may pitch in the seventh, eighth or ninth inning.

Mason Koch is expected to fill that high leverage role. Other Bluejays that will see significant time from the right side are returners Daniel Hammond and Malakai Vetock as well as newcomer Parker Primeaux.

Southpaws coming out of the pen will be led by returners Shane Curtin and Tommy Lamb. Transfers Jackson Brenna and Casey Trapp will also battle for time with freshman Andrew Rakow.

Known as a coach who emphasizes team defense, Servais' teams have consistently been among the nation's best in fielding percentage. In his first season (2004) the Bluejays' .982 fielding percentage led the country. Creighton has repeated that impressive feat two additional times (2009 & 2014).

Under Servais the Bluejays have finished in the NCAA's top-10 in fielding 12 times (including second in 2021 while second baseman Andrew Meggs was a Rawlings Gold Glove finalist). During the 2023 season the Bluejays held the fourth-best fielding team in the NCAA. Since the Servais era began, Creighton has committed the fewest errors in the nation (879), while also leading the country with a .975 fielding percentage.

The focus on defense and fundamental baseball has helped deliver wins in historic fashion. Servais' overall record of 825-469-2 (.637) places him 21st in the nation in wins amongst active DI coaches and his 643-387-1 record (.624) with the Bluejays makes him the winningest coach in program history and second most in Creighton Athletics history.

Servais has posted a winning record in 24 of his 28 full seasons as a head coach. A total of 12 times Servais led his teams to at least a .667 winning percentage. During his 20 seasons at Creighton, Servais has guided the Bluejays to 14 seasons of at least 30 wins and has topped 40 wins in four seasons.

Servais' reputation for teaching was rewarded during the summer of 2013, Servais served as one of three assistants for USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team. Servais was responsible for team defense and was the first base coach. Servais helped Team USA post a 7-3 record, including a five-game sweep of the Cuban National Team.

Servais' ability to prepare his squad to play beyond the college ranks led to 39 Bluejays being taken in the MLB Draft. Six Creighton players were selected in the draft following the 2019 season, tying the six Bluejays taken from the 1991 team. Two Bluejays (Dylan Tebrake and Alan Roden) were selected in the 2022 MLB Draft.

Two former Bluejays who were under Servais' direction at Creighton and known for their spectacular defense played during the 2022 MLB season.

Nicky Lopez (2014-16), who kept a .973 fielding percentage in three years in Servais' infield, will enter his sixth season in MLB during 2024. Last year Lopez split time with the Kansas City Royals and the Atlanta Braves.

Darin Ruf (2006-08) split time with the San Francisco Giants and Milwaukee Brewers in 2024. Ruf led the Bluejays with a .997 fielding percentage and was a two-time NCAA DI Rawlings Gold Glove winner (2007 and 2009).

Servais was named the Creighton head coach on July 29, 2003 after serving as the program's interim head coach for the previous month. As an assistant, Servais was on the bench for 174 Bluejay wins (including a pair of NCAA Regional berths in 1999 and 2000). Servais was on staff when previous head coach Jack Dahm was named MVC Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2002.

Servais also served as the Bluejays' recruiting coordinator. He made an immediate impact on the program in his first year, as the Bluejays ranked among the nation's top defensive teams with a .965 fielding percentage in 1998. The team's offensive numbers also increased significantly as the team batting average went up 29 points to .313. The run production also increased from 6.9 to 7.5 runs per game.

Head Coach Ed Servais

Before coming to Creighton, Servais spent two years as an assistant coach at Iowa State University. During his time at ISU, he served as recruiting coordinator, hitting instructor, infield and outfield coach. He helped lead the Cyclones to a second-place finish at the final Big Eight Conference tournament in 1996.

Prior to Iowa State, Servais was the head coach at St. Mary's (Minn.) for seven years from 1989-1995. While at St. Mary's, he compiled a record of 159-76-1 at the NCAA Division III school. He was named the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) Coach of the Year in both 1990 and 1993 after leading St. Mary's to MIAC championships in both years. His 1990 pitching staff led Division III schools with a 2.34 earned run average. Between the years of 1991 and 1992, his teams went on a 26-game winning streak.

His 1993 team at St. Mary's came just short of making the Division III World Series, falling in the finals of the Division III Midwest Regional. That team was ranked as high as No. 10 in the country. In his seven years as head coach, St. Mary's had six players drafted by major league teams.

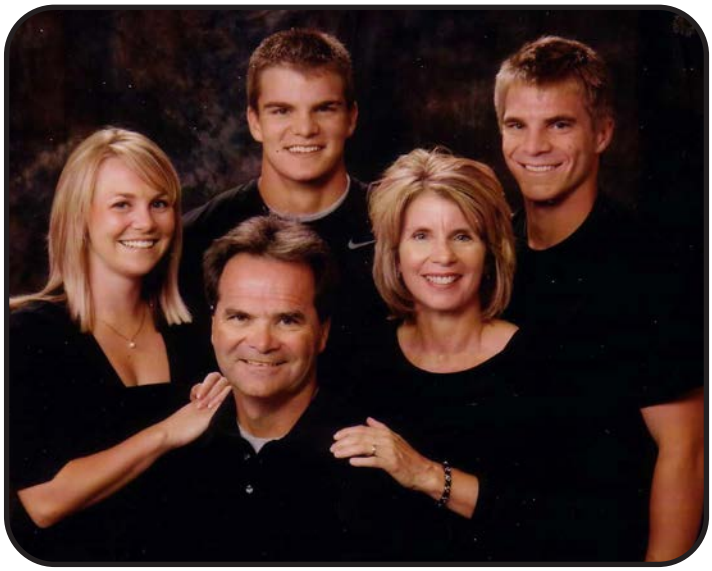
Servais' first collegiate head coaching position came at Viterbo College in La Crosse, Wis., in 1988 when he coached the NAIA Division II V-Hawks in the first year of baseball at the school. He made his only season there one to remember, leading the V-Hawks to a 23-6 overall record and an 11-1 conference mark. Making that record even more impressive is that of the 17 players on the team, 14 were freshmen. One of those freshmen he coached was Damian Miller, was a member of the 2001 world champion Arizona Diamondbacks.

Servais' first college coaching job came at St. Mary's in 1984 as an assistant. He stayed there for three seasons, after which he left to start the baseball program at Viterbo. He got his start in coaching at Rib Lake High School in Rib Lake, Wis. He coached for two years at Rib Lake and rang up a two-year record of 24-11 from 1982-1983. He led Rib Lake to the district finals in both of his years.

Servais graduated from Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1980 with a degree in physical education. As a player, Servais was a three-time all-conference selection, the team's co-captain and Most Valuable Player his senior year. He holds a master's degree in physical education from Wisconsin-La Crosse, which he earned in 1986 while coaching at St. Mary's.

Servais resides in Omaha with his wife Anne. They have three children: Angela, Joe and Michael. Ed has six grandchildren (Angela: Gwen and Vincent, Joe: Harper and Riley, Michael: Aiden and Elijah).

Ed is also the uncle of former Creighton All-American and major league catcher Scott Servais, who will begin his ninth season as the manager of the Seattle Mariners after leading them to their first playoff appearance in 21 years in 2022.



Year-by-Year Recap

2023: 25-24, 10-11 BIG EAST
The 2023 season saw Creighton post its first victory over Connecticut, taking the series opener from the ninth-ranked Huskies. The Bluejays also took an early season battle with 2016 College World Series champion Coastal Carolina. Unfortunately a late season slump kept Creighton out of the BIG EAST Tournament for just the second time.

2022: 31-18, 15-5 BIG EAST
The Bluejays posted their 14th 30-win season under Servais' direction. The Bluejays delivered 15 wins in conference play, finishing second in the BIG EAST for a second consecutive season. Dylan Tebrake and Alan Roden capped their Creighton careers with BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year (Tebrake) and Co-Player of the Year (Roden).

2021: 24-15, 15-6 BIG EAST
The Bluejays finished second in the conference behind newcomer Connecticut, despite never playing the Huskies in the regular season. The 15 wins in conference play was the most since Creighton joined the BIG EAST. The Bluejays saw 16 game cancellations due to COVID-related complications in opposing programs throughout the season, playing just 39 contests. The season featured a 10-game win streak between March 27 and April 24.

2020: 5-10 (Season canceled due to COVID)
As with sports all around the country and internationally, the NCAA announced the cancellation of the season in mid-March after the Bluejays had played just 15 games.

2019: 41-13, 13-5 BIG EAST - NCAA
Powered with one of the most potent offenses in his time at the helm, Servais and the Bluejays returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2012. Creighton was not just happy making an appearance, dispatching the 2018 CWS champion Oregon State on their home field. The Bluejays went on to force a decisive game with the eventual 2019 CWS runner-up Michigan Wolverines in the Oregon State Regional.

Creighton earned the BIG EAST's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament with consecutive victories over Seton Hall, St. John's and Xavier at Prasco Park. Servais and the Creighton staff collected the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year honor.

2018: 34-16, 8-9 BIG EAST
The Bluejays topped the 30-win mark for the 12th time under Servais in 2018, closing the year at 34-16. Creighton, however, did not qualify for the BIG EAST Championship with an 8-9 mark in league play.

2017: 24-25, 11-4 BIG EAST
Creighton claimed its second regular-season BIG EAST title in just its fourth year as a member of the conference in 2017, going 11-4 in BIG EAST play. The Bluejays finished the season 24-25, falling in the conference tournament to Xavier and St. John's at Charles Schwab Field Omaha.

2016: 38-17, 13-5 BIG EAST
The 2016 season saw Creighton compete for both the conference title as well as an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, posting a 38-17 overall record and a 13-5 mark in conference play. During the early portion of the season, the Bluejays won 16 of 17 games (Feb. 26-March 27) and took a three game series from #20 BYU in Utah (April 22-23).

2015: 32-19, 13-4 BIG EAST
The Bluejays were 32-19 in 2015, collecting Servais' 600th career win on May 15 over Villanova. Creighton reached the BIG EAST title game for the second consecutive season, falling to St. John's.

2014: 32-17-1, 14-4 BIG EAST
In 2014 Servais guided the Bluejays to the BIG EAST regular season championship, the first BIG EAST title for any sport at Creighton. The Bluejays closed the year with a 32-17-1 record and a 14-4 mark in their first season as a member of the BIG EAST. In the conference tournament, Creighton won its first two contests to advance to the championship game, but the Bluejays fell in a winner-take-all affair to Xavier.

Creighton closed the season as the NCAA statistical champion in fielding percentage (.984), with just 32 errors. In addition, Servais picked up the 2014 BIG EAST Coach of the Year nod.

2013: 30-18, 13-8 MVC
Creighton got off to a fast start in 2013, sweeping a road series at Dallas Baptist (Feb. 15-17) and taking a road series at Wichita State (May 10-12). The Bluejays closed 2013 with a 30-18 mark, Creighton's final year in the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC).

2012: 28-30, 6-14 MVC - NCAA
Despite finishing 2012 at 28-30 and 6-14 in MVC play, Servais led his team to the NCAA Tournament with an inspired four-game sweep at the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays opened the MVC Tournament with an upset win over top-seed Indiana State and went on to defeat Illinois State twice to advance to the title game. Creighton completed the four-game run by besting Southern Illinois, 8-6. At the Los Angeles Regional, the Bluejays dropped their opener to host UCLA (3-0), but rebounded to eliminate San Diego (8-2) and New Mexico (7-2), before falling to the Bruins (13-5).

2011: 45-16, 15-6 MVC - NCAA
Creighton moved into Charles Schwab Field Omaha midway through the 2011 season, leaving behind the friendly confines of the CU Sports Complex where Servais posted a .770 winning percentage.

The 2011 team finished with a 45-16 overall record, claiming the regular season title in the Missouri Valley with a 15-6 mark. It marked the first time in school history a Bluejay baseball team won the regular-season and tournament titles in the same year. The Bluejays finished the season ranked 25th in the nation, breaking into the top-25 for the first time since 2007.

Servais was named the 2011 MVC Coach of the Year, as he guided the Bluejays to series sweeps of Indiana State, Bradley and Missouri State. The three wins over the Bears to close the regular-season gave Creighton the MVC regular-season crown outright. The Bluejays won the MVC Tournament (including playing four games in two days) by defeating Missouri State for the fifth time in eight days, needing a wild pitch in the 12th inning to get a 4-3 victory. Finally Creighton bested Wichita State 3-1 in the title game to earn the automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament.

The Bluejays earned a host of postseason accolades, led by Servais' MVC Coach of the Year recognition while Ty Blach became the seventh player in program history to be named a CoSIDA Academic All-American.

2010: 27-25, 9-12 MVC
Creighton finished the 2010 season, 27-25. Creighton excelled on the defensive side, finishing second in the nation in fielding percentage at .980. The Bluejays committed just 41 errors in 52 games. The end of the 2010 season saw four Bluejays recognized by the MVC and Ty Blach claimed Freshman All-American honors.

2009: 31-25, 14-9 MVC
In 2009, the Bluejays came within one win of their third NCAA Tournament in five years, as they reached the MVC Tournament championship game before falling to Wichita State, 4-2. Defense set the tone for the squad as it finished with a .984 fielding percentage, tops in the NCAA. Servais coached seven All-MVC selections in 2009.

2008: 37-21, 16-8 MVC
The Creighton skipper guided the 2008 team to another strong season. The Bluejays, who were 37-21 overall, posted a .976 fielding percentage, good for third in the nation, after committing only 52 errors in 58 games. Creighton was also near the top of the nation in sacrifice bunts as well as shutouts. Individually the Bluejays featured four All-MVC picks in 2008, Pat Venditte, Robbie Knight, Steve Winkelmann and Darin Ruf.

2007: 45-16, 19-5 MVC - NCAA
In 2007, Servais led Creighton to 45 wins and the first MVC Tournament Championship in school history. Servais was named the MVC Coach of the Year for the third time as the Bluejays advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years. Creighton won 26 of its final 31 games, including a memorable 10-9, 12-inning victory over 12th-ranked Wichita State in the title game of the MVC Tournament. The 2007 season saw 12 school records broken.

The 2006 team posted a record of 31-21 overall and placed fourth in the MVC with a 13-11 mark. After dropping the opening series, the Bluejays went on a 15-game winning streak. Once back in Omaha, Creighton won its first six home contests, including two over No. 11 Wichita State.

2005: 48-17, 17-7 MVC - NCAA
In 2005, Servais coached the Bluejays to a 48-17 record and the school's first-ever MVC regular-season championship. It was also the team's first NCAA postseason appearance since 2000. The squad's 48 wins were the second-most in program history, behind only the 51 games won by the 1991 College World Series team. Servais also brought home his second MVC Coach of the Year award in as many seasons.

Creighton ended the 2005 campaign ranked for the first time since 2000, a No. 28 ranking from Collegiate Baseball. Servais also led the Bluejays to a 5-3 regular-season win over No. 3 Nebraska in front of more than 20,000 fans at Rosenblatt Stadium. Creighton led the nation in double plays turned with 85 and set a team record for assists with 803.

2004: 35-24, 22-9 MVC
In 2004, Servais was honored as the MVC Coach of the Year, the first time in league history it was awarded to a first-year coach. Creighton's 15-win improvement from its 2003 record was the fifth-best turnaround in the NCAA that year and the largest in the MVC since 1991. Servais led the Bluejays to 35 wins, including a school-record 22 MVC victories.

6 • Connor Gandossy

Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator
Saint Louis (2012) • Seventh Season at Creighton

Connor Gandossy is entering his seventh season as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator for the Creighton Baseball program. A former catcher himself, Gandossy is also responsible for Bluejay catchers.

Since Gandossy joined the Bluejays the team has posted a 160-96 record. During Gandossy's tenure, Creighton's offense has hit .268 with 513 doubles, 216 home runs and is averaging with 6.1 runs per game.

Gandossy's Résumé

- Assistant Coach, Creighton (2017-present)
  - Recruiting Coordinator
  - Catching Coach
- Assistant Coach, Saint Louis (2015-17)
  - Recruiting Coordinator
  - Catching Coach
  - Hitting Coach
- Volunteer Assistant Coach, Saint Louis (2014)
- Volunteer Assistant Coach, Jefferson College (2013)

Collegiate Career

- Saint Louis (2009-12)

Gandossy came to Creighton in the fall of 2017 from Saint Louis University, where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons. Prior to coaching at Saint Louis, Gandossy was an assistant coach at Jefferson College.

Connor has been an instrumental part of the Bluejays' success leading to a trip to the NCAA Regional finals in 2019. The 2019 team was ranked among the Top-25 teams in the nation and claimed the BIG EAST regular season and tournament championships.

During his first season as the hitting coach at Creighton (2018), Gandossy helped the Bluejay offense bump its team batting average by 11 points (from .256 to .267), raise the squads' slugging percentage from .370 to .412 and increase runs per game from 4.3 to 6.1 (during his first six seasons combined).

Creighton continued to improve at the plate in 2019, leading the BIG EAST in hitting for the first time with a team batting average of .290. The Bluejays also posted an on-base percentage of .387, slugging percentage of .477, collected 200 extra base hits (67 home runs) and scored over seven runs per game.

Gandossy worked closely with Alan Roden, helping the Wisconsin native move from a walk-on in 2019 to the 98th overall pick in the 2022 MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays. Roden went on to claim the 2022 BIG EAST Player of the Year. Roden was the second BIG EAST Player of the Year recruited by Gandossy, joining the 2019 BIG EAST Player of the Year and All-American, Jake Holton, who was selected in the 10th round of the MLB Draft.

Along with Holton, three other Bluejay positional players were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft. Will Robertson was selected by the Toronto Blue Jays in the fourth round, Isaac Collins was selected by the Colorado Rockies in the ninth round and Jack Strunc was selected by the Miami Marlins in the 25th round.

Gandossy's impact is expected to continue to grow as the Bluejays' 2020 recruiting class was rated as one of the Top 50 in the nation by College Baseball Newspaper (CBN) and Baseball America. The 2021 recruiting class was a Perfect Game Top 100 class as well as a Top 75 Class by CBN. It was the third time Gandossy landed a Perfect Game Top 100 class, doing so in 2015 and 2016 at SLU.

Gandossy has helped four catchers get drafted by major league baseball. Gandossy helped Bluejay Michael Emodi earn a spot on the Johnny Bench Watch List and be drafted in 2018 in the 11th round by the Kansas City Royals. In addition, Billiken catcher Jake Henson made the Johnny Bench Watch List and was drafted in the 21st round by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Colton Frabasilio was drafted in the 23rd round by the Kansas City Royals in 2015. In total Gandossy has coached 28 players who were drafted by MLB clubs.

A standout catcher and leader for the Billikens from 2009-12, Gandossy appeared in 157 games behind the plate. He caught 49 contests in each of his last two seasons at SLU. During that span, the Billikens won three Atlantic 10 championships, earned one NCAA tournament bid, and broke the school record for wins in 2012 with 41.

Gandossy received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Saint Louis University in 2012 and earned his master's degree in organizational leadership from Creighton in 2021. Connor and his wife, Rachael, were married during the fall of 2019 and welcomed their first child (Marcus) in 2022.

48 • Mitch Mormann

Assistant Coach
Wichita State (2012) • Third Season at Creighton

Mitch Mormann joined the Creighton staff in the fall of 2021 after three seasons as the recruiting coordinator and pitching coach at Ohio (2019-2021).

Mormann made an instant impact for the Bluejays pitching staff as Creighton closed the 2022 season ranked 37th in the NCAA with an ERA of 4.33. The Bluejays also held opponents to a .259 average with a 418 strikeouts. In the regular season (46 games), the Bluejays posted a team ERA of just 3.79, which would have placed them seventh in the country.

Mormann's influence helped Bluejay Tommy Steier set the Creighton single season record with a 1.62 ERA over 55.2 innings in 2022. Steier had a 4.02 ERA over 15.2 frames in his first full season with Creighton in 2021.

Another hurler that benefited from Mormann's guidance was Dylan Tebrake in the spring of 2022. The Minnesota native repeated as the 2022 BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year, after claiming the honor in 2021. Tebrake notched 115 strikeouts over 93 innings in 2022, helping him get drafted in the eighth round by the New York Mets (239th overall pick). In 2022 Tebrake finished 44th in the NCAA with a 2.71 ERA. Mormann called the pitches in Tebrake's May 13 performance against Butler where he set the Creighton record for single-game strikeouts with 15.

In 2020 at Ohio, Mormann was the pitching coach for LHP Joe Rock, who was drafted with the 68th pick in the competitive balance B Round of the 2021 MLB First-Year Player Draft. Rock was 8-3 with a 2.33 ERA, striking out 117 batters over 88.2 innings of work. Rock was First Team All-MAC and a member of Collegiate Baseball's 2021 NCAA Division I All-American Second Team.

Mormann joined Ohio from South Dakota State (2016-19). While at SDSU, Mormann coached two First Team All-Summit League closers, three Second Team All-Summit League pitchers and two Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-Americans. Mormann's squad led the Summit League in pitching in 2019. Prior to SDSU, Mormann helped mold North Dakota's Zach Muckenhirn into the program's highest-ever draft pick (11th Round, 331st overall selection).

Mormann was a key member of the Ohio coaching staff in 2015, when the Bobcats won the 2015 Mid-American Conference championship and made an NCAA Regional. His college coaching career began at Des Moines Area Community College, where Mormann coached the 2014 NJCAA Division II National Player of the Year and won the ICCAC.

Mormann played at Des Moines Area Community College, LSU and Wichita State during his collegiate career. He was drafted three times in college and played in the San Francisco Giants organization.

8 • Cam Johnson

Assistant Coach
Buena Vista (2017) • Second Season at Creighton

Cam Johnson joined the Creighton baseball staff in the fall of 2022 as an assistant coach. He is responsible for working with outfielders, coordinating prospect and youth camps for the Bluejays and assisting with offense.

Before Creighton, Johnson coached at Des Moines Area Community College in Boone, Iowa, from 2018-2021. After joining the DMACC coaching staff in 2018, he helped make various improvements to the program. Johnson assisted in developing numerous hitting and defensive strategies for the Bears. He also led the strength and conditioning program and assisted in the recruitment of new DMACC baseball players. In Johnson's first year at DMACC, he helped the Bears achieve the ICCAC regular-season title. Since 2018, Johnson has assisted in sending over 40 players to four-year schools and saw one former player, Austin Murr, selected by the Detroit Tigers in the sixth round of the 2021 MLB Draft.

During the summer of 2022, Johnson was the head coach of the Badlands Big Sticks located in Dickinson, North Dakota. He directed the Big Sticks to a 31-win season and helped the team secure a place in the divisional playoffs. He coached many successful players, including current Bluejay Cooper Dulich.

Johnson attended Buena Vista University in Storm Lake, Iowa where he was a part of over 120 wins over his four-year baseball career. In 2017, Johnson received his Bachelor of Arts in Exercise Science with a minor in Coaching from Buena Vista.

Johnson's Résumé

- Volunteer Assistant Coach, Creighton (2022-present)
- Assistant Coach, Des Moines Area Community College (2018-21)

Collegiate Career

- Buena Vista University (2014-17)

Curtis Self

Athletic Trainer
Coe College (2000) • 16th Season at Creighton

Curtis Self is in his 16th year with Creighton, serving as the athletic trainer for baseball. He is also the insurance coordinator.

He is a certified athletic trainer and has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association since 1998. Self is an approved clinical instructor through CAAHEP as well as CPR and AED certified.

Self was an associate athletic trainer at College of Charleston in Charleston, S.C., from 2002-08. While at Charleston, he was the facility coordinator of the Patriots Point Athletic Training room with sport assignments for the baseball and women's tennis teams. Prior to his stint at College of Charleston, Self served as an athletic trainer for the Texas Rangers Minor League Baseball Club for two seasons. With the Texas Rangers he was responsible for the evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation associated with the rookie classification Gulf Coast Rangers.

Self was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan University where he earned his Master of Arts degree in physical education and recreation with an athletic training emphasis in 2002. He graduated from Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in physical education and athletic training in May 2000. While an athletic training student at Coe College, he was also a member of the men's swimming team.

Originally from Grand Island, Neb., Self and his wife, Kristine, reside in Omaha. The couple have two yellow labs, Gunner and Linus.

1973 Major League Baseball June Draft

39th Rd. (715)	Jim Lemon, 2B	Kansas City Royals

The 1973 Bluejays became the first team in school history to qualify for postseason play, as they received an at-large bid to the District Five Playoffs held in Tulsa, Okla. With a total of eight four-team districts, the 1973 NCAA Tournament consisted of 32 teams. There were a total of 216 Division I teams at that time.

Led by coach Dave Baker, the Bluejays picked up regular-season wins over Kansas State, Nebraska, Arkansas and Iowa State. In the District Five Playoffs, Creighton lost its opening game to Oklahoma, who would advance to the College World Series and was eliminated by Oral Roberts.

Offensively, senior co-captain Jim Lemon was the team's most productive player, compiling 42 hits in 142 at-bats for a .296 batting average. The centerfielder also tied for the team-lead with nine stolen bases and would be drafted in the 39th round of the June 1973 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals. Senior shortstop Steve Naval, also a co-captain on the 1973 squad, led the team with five home runs and 10 doubles. Sophomore first baseman Ron Thornam paced Creighton with 23 RBI.

39th Rd. (1015)	Mike Heathcott, RHP	New York Yankees
46th Rd. (1172)	Ryan Martindale, OF	St. Louis Cardinals

After a 17-year absence from postseason play, the 1990 squad ended the drought and began a streak of three consecutive NCAA Regional appearances for the Bluejays. Creighton earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament after finishing third in the MVC with a 13-7 league mark.

At the NCAA Central Regional in Austin, Texas, the Bluejays picked up their first-ever NCAA Tournament win over Clemson in the opener. After a 6-3 loss to eventual CWS qualifier Cal State Fullerton, Creighton came back to defeat Clemson for the second time the next day. The dream of reaching the CWS ended, however, with an 11-9 loss to the host Texas Longhorns.

The team's 48 wins were a school-record at that time, as head coach Jim Hendry directed the squad to the NCAA Tournament in his sixth full season. Hendry would go on to coach only one more season, before making the jump to professional baseball where he currently serves as a special assistant scout for the New York Yankees.

Individual accolades went hand-in-hand with the team's success. Junior left-handed pitcher Dan Smith was named the MVC Pitcher of the Year after leading the league with a 14-3 record and a then-school-record 1.96 ERA. Smith recorded 12 complete games, five shutouts and 134 strikeouts as a junior before being selected in the first round (16th pick) of the 1990 MLB Draft by the Texas Rangers. He received first-team All-America honors from both Baseball America and the ABCA following the season, as well as First Team All-MVC laurels.

Joining Smith on the All-MVC First Team were junior outfielder John Pivovar and sophomore infielder Scott Stahoviak. Pivovar hit .339 in 61 starts, tallying 11 doubles, four triples, five home runs and 35 RBI, to go along with a .988 fielding percentage. Stahoviak led the team in nearly every offensive category, including MVC-best totals with a .417 batting average, 95 hits and 25 doubles. His .561 on-base percentage would be a school record until he bettered the mark the following season and his batting average and doubles total still rank among the top-five at Creighton.

Stahoviak was also voted onto the All-Regional Team at first base, after batting 9-for-16 in Creighton's four postseason games. Joining Stahoviak on the team was fellow sophomore Steve Hinton, who was selected for his play in left field. Hinton picked up six hits, scored five runs and drove in four during Regional play.

1991 College World Series

The shining moment for the Creighton baseball program came during a magical season in 1991, as the Bluejays advanced to the College World Series in its hometown for the first and only time in school history. Making only its third NCAA Tournament appearance, the Bluejays swept through the West I Regional in Los Angeles, Calif. Creighton defeated Pepperdine, Minnesota, top-seed and host USC and Hawai'i in the regional final to advance to the CWS.

With the support of its home fans at Rosenblatt Stadium, seventh-seeded Creighton fed off their energy in upsetting second-seeded Clemson in the first round, 8-4. Then in an epic battle against MVC rival Wichita State, the Bluejays suffered a heartbreaking 3-2, 12-inning loss. In an elimination game, Creighton responded to rock Long Beach State, 13-4, to earn one more shot at the Shockers. However, Creighton's dream season ended shy of the national championship game, as Wichita State defeated the Bluejays, 11-3, for the Shockers' eighth win in eight games against Creighton during the season.

The 1991 squad rewrote the record books, with many marks still standing today, including the 51-win total reached during the season. Creighton finished as the nation's top offense, hitting a school-record .355 during the year. The Bluejays also broke and still hold school records in runs (667), hits (904), RBI (611), doubles (184), triples (60), home runs (107), total bases (1,529) and slugging percentage (.601). Every Creighton regular hit above the .330 mark during the team's remarkable offensive season.

Individually, junior Scott Stahoviak became the program's first National Player of the Year, earning the award from the American Baseball Coaches Association. Also named the MVC Player of the Year and a first-team All-American, Stahoviak led the Bluejays with an incredible .449 batting average. He also set school records with 120 hits, 87 runs, 199 total bases and a .600 on-base percentage.

On the mound, senior Mike Heathcott turned in a season for the ages, winning a school-record 15 games and logging a Creighton-best 132 innings of work to earn Second Team All-America accolades from Collegiate Baseball. Joining Stahoviak and Heathcott on the All-MVC First Team were junior centerfielder Dax Jones and designated hitter Steve Hinton. Jones still holds the Creighton single-season record with 11 triples, while Hinton is the record-holder with 278 at-bats and 90 RBI.

Six other Bluejays were named to the Second Team All-Valley squad and a total of six players from the 1991 team went on to play in the major leagues: Stahoviak, Jones, Heathcott, sophomore Chad McConnell and freshmen Alan Benes and Kimera Bartee. Head coach Jim Hendry left the program following the season to take a position with the expansion Florida Marlins.

1992 Major League Baseball Draft

1st Rd. (13)	Chad McConnell, OF	Philadelphia Phillies
35th Rd. (992)	Rick Freehling, OF	Florida Marlins

Creighton finished second behind nemesis Wichita State in the MVC standings and received an at-large bid to the NCAA Central Regional in Austin, Texas. After defeating Texas-Arlington in their regional opener, the Bluejays lost two close games to Long Beach State and Virginia Commonwealth to end hopes of a second straight trip to Rosenblatt Stadium and the CWS.

The Bluejays swept the player of the year awards in the conference, as junior rightfielder Chad McConnell was named the MVC Player of the Year and sophomore right-hander Alan Benes was tabbed the MVC Pitcher of the Year. McConnell also captured first-team All-America honors as he batted .400 with 14 home runs and an MVC-best 73 RBI. He went on to play on the 1992 U.S. Olympic team and was drafted in the first round of the 1992 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. Benes finished the season 11-3 with nine complete games, 110 strikeouts and a 3.14 ERA. He would go on to play eight major league seasons, six for the St. Louis Cardinals, and now works in the team's front office.

Joining McConnell and Benes on the All-MVC First Team was senior designated hitter Bob Langer. Langer remains third on Creighton's career doubles list, with 61. Catcher Brian Davidson, utility man Kimera Bartee and outfielder Rick Freehling earned Second Team All-MVC honors. Curiously missing from MVC postseason recognition were pitchers Brian O'Brien and Rick Heiserman. O'Brien, a sophomore left-handed middle reliever, finished 10-1 to lead the MVC in winning percentage at .909. Heiserman, a freshman right-handed reliever, tied for the MVC lead with future Major Leaguer Darren Dreifort of Wichita State with 12 saves. Heiserman did land on Collegiate Baseball's Freshman All-American team. A total of 14 players from the 1992 team went on to play professionally, including Bartee, Benes, McConnell and Heiserman, who went on to play in the Major Leagues.

The Bluejays returned to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the decade in 1999 under the direction of MVC Coach of the Year Jack Dahm. Creighton finished third in the MVC regular season standings behind Wichita State and Missouri State with an 18-13 record, but earned an at-large bid. Losses to host Notre Dame and Michigan at the South Bend Regional ended the Bluejays' season at 38-25.

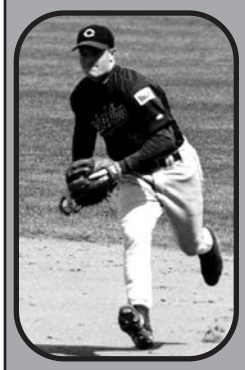
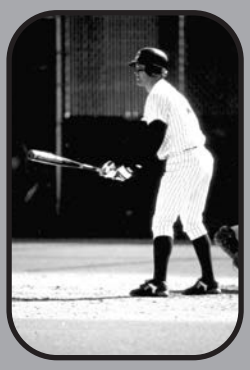
1999 Major League Baseball Draft

3rd Rd. (110)	Ryan Gripp, 3B	Chicago Cubs
18th Rd. (553)	Peyton Lewis, RHP	Toronto Blue Jays

Creighton was led by do-it-all senior transfer Peyton Lewis, who transferred from NAIA Midland University. He was named the MVC Pitcher and Newcomer of the Year after posting a 10-1 record on the mound with a 3.30 ERA in 17 appearances, striking out 114 batters in 103.2 innings of work. Lewis was also very formidable with the bat, hitting .339 with an eye-popping 41 extra base hits on 18 doubles, four triples and 19 home runs. He earned First Team All-MVC laurels as a pitcher and second-team honors as a utility player. He was also voted an NCBWA Second Team All-American.



Vince Pietro



All-American
Ryan Gripp

Leading the way offensively was senior third baseman Ryan Gripp, who led the team with a .395 batting average and 78 hits, 92 runs, 84 RBI, 24 doubles and 24 home runs to earn first-team All-America honors from the ABCA. Gripp and Lewis combined for 89 extra base hits, 42 doubles and 43 homers, the top two single-season home run totals in school history. The team had six starters hit above the .330 mark and out-scored its opponents 503-376.

Gripp and Lewis were named first-team all-region and All-MVC performers, with Second Team All-MVC honors going to junior second baseman Vince Pietro and freshman relief pitcher Scott Yahraus. Pietro set a MVC and school record with 22 sacrifice bunts.

Yahraus made 11 saves in a then-school-record 32 appearances to earn Freshman All-America status.

Sophomore first baseman Dan Lawler was named a Third-Team Academic All-American, freshman Scott Allen was named to the South Bend All-Regional team and Gripp, Lewis and junior Troy Carley were MVC All-Tournament team members.

8th Rd. (243)	Dan Gooris, LHP	Cincinnati Reds
22nd Rd. (666)	Vince Pietro, 3B	Cleveland Indians

The 2000 Bluejays came out of the gate as one of the hottest teams in college baseball, winning 15 of their first 16 and were a Creighton-best 21-3 after 24 contests. The team spent several weeks ranked in the top-25, peaking at No. 15.

Creighton went on to earn an at-large bid to its second consecutive NCAA Tournament. The season ended with two close losses to Miami (Ohio) and eventual College World Series qualifier Texas at the Tempe Regional, concluding with a 38-23 record.

Scott Allen

Among the bright spots of the season were 15 wins against NCAA Tournament teams in the first 25 games, a 4-1 record against MVC champ Wichita State and a crowd of 15,436 fans for the Nebraska game at Rosenblatt Stadium, the fourth-largest in NCAA history at the time.

Creighton was led by senior utility man Vince Pietro and sophomore leadoff hitter Chris Hinrichs, the team's two First Team All-MVC picks. Both starters in all 61 games, Pietro hit .333 with a team-best 80 hits while Hinrichs posted team-best totals with 20 doubles, 55 runs and 20 stolen bases. Junior outfielder Eric Brown led the squad with 12 home runs, while senior infielder Ken Sarna compiled 19 doubles and 11 home runs. Sophomore third baseman Scott Allen had a team-leading seven triples to highlight a very balanced offense.

On the mound, the Bluejays were led by junior ace Dan Gooris, who finished 7-3 with 93 strikeouts in 17 starts, logging a team-high 114.2 innings. The left-hander was an eighth-round choice of the Cincinnati Reds following the season in the 2000 MLB Draft. In the bullpen, Steve Neneman accumulated a 7-1 record to earn Second Team All-MVC laurels. Senior reliever Chris Ringleb matched the school record with 12 saves in a team-high 33 appearances.

For the second straight season, junior first baseman Dan Lawler earned Third Team Academic All-America accolades. He also was voted to the Tempe All-Regional Team, while Gooris was selected to the MVC All-Tournament team. Lawler, Pietro and senior outfielder Troy Carley were named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team.

2005 Major League Baseball Draft

46th Rd. (1391)	Eric Wordekemper, RHP	New York Yankees

After a 2004 season that saw Creighton improve by 15 games under first-year head coach Ed Servais, the 2005 team won 13 more games to establish itself as a rising power in college baseball.

The 2005 Bluejays won the first MVC regular season championship and its 48 victories were second all-time at Creighton. After losing in the MVC Tournament title game, Creighton received an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament and defeated 17th-ranked North Carolina State, 8-3, in the Lincoln Regional opener. After a loss to No. 3 Nebraska, Creighton defeated the Wolfpack again in an elimination game, 11-9. Despite winning 2-of-3 during the regular season, the Bluejays could not overcome the Huskers, falling to the eventual CWS participant, 10-2 in the regional championship.

Academic All-American Zach Daeges

The remarkable turnaround executed by Servais earned Creighton's head man MVC Coach of the Year honors for the second straight season. The team's 48-17 finish was largely due to the team's fundamentally sound approach, as Creighton led the country in double plays (85), and were in the top-20 nationally in fielding percentage. The bullpen was masterful, posting a 27-3 record and a 3.72 ERA. When holding a lead after seven innings, Creighton was 33-0. Sophomore left-hander Scott Reese finished 12-0 in a then-school-record 37 appearances to earn Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA. Senior closer Brandon Bird was nearly automatic, converting on 11 save opportunities to join Reese on the All-MVC First Team.

Senior second baseman Tony Roth and DH Zach Daeges gave Creighton four members on the All-MVC First Team. Roth set a school record with a 28-game hitting streak during the season and finished with 20 doubles and team-best 12 stolen bases. Daeges led the team with a .350 batting average and 61 RBI, also earning third team Academic All-America honors. Seniors Dan Norquist (first base) and Brad Dutton (shortstop) brought home Second Team All-MVC plaudits. Creighton finished the season ranked 28th by Collegiate Baseball.

After posting a 19-5 MVC record for its best-ever conference winning percentage, Creighton captured its first MVC Tournament championship in Springfield, Mo., to earn an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. In its eighth NCAA appearance in school history, the Bluejays fell in the opener to Oklahoma State, but rebounded to score a tournament-high 21 runs in a win over Albany. However, the Bluejays ran into future First Round MLB draft pick Nick Schmidt of Arkansas and the Razorbacks ended Creighton's season at 45-16 overall.

Ben Mancuso (L) and Pat Venditte (R)

Built around sound fundamentals and unselfishness, the 2007 squad set school records for sacrifice bunts (93) and times hit by pitch (116). Creighton's pitching staff was remarkable, as three hurlers finished with sub-3.00 ERAs and four earned All-America recognition. Starting pitcher Ben Mancuso was named the MVC Pitcher of the Year and a third-team All-American by Collegiate Baseball after going 10-3 with a 2.34 ERA. Ambidextrous pitcher Pat Venditte set school records with his 1.88 ERA and 38 appearances, earning All-America status from four national publications. He was also named the MVC Tournament MVP after allowing only one run in 12 innings. Senior closer Andy Masten was named the MVC Newcomer of the Year and a Second Team All-American by the NCBWA after recording a school-record 16 saves. Midweek starter Casey Schmidt was named a Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball after finishing 6-1 with a 3.12 ERA.

Sophomore first baseman Darin Ruf was named the Joe Carter MVC Player of the Year as he led the Bluejays in 10 different offensive categories. He was also rewarded for his great defensive play, earning a Rawlings Gold Glove as the nation's best-fielding first baseman. Head coach Ed Servais was again named the MVC Coach of the Year, the third time in his first four seasons as head man. Redshirt freshman Robbie Knight set an NCAA record after being hit by 35 pitches.

2011 Major League Baseball Draft

9th Rd. (280)	Jonas Dufek, RHP	Houston Astros
16th Rd. (504)	Trever Adams, OF	Texas Rangers

Using a 15-6 Missouri Valley Conference record to claim the regular season crown, Creighton rolled through the MVC Tournament to earn the regular season and tournament title in the same season for the first time. It also gave Creighton the conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament, the third appearance in head coach Ed Servais' tenure.

Ed Servais and the 2011 Seniors

Creighton entered the tournament as the 25th ranked team in the nation, and showed what it could do in the regional opener, defeating Georgia 2-1 behind a stellar pitching performance from Jonas Dufek. The senior, who earned All-MVC First Team honors as well as All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball, struck out 10 batters and scattered five hits in the opener. The Bluejays hit a roadblock, falling to No. 13 Oregon State 5-1 before being eliminated from the tournament by Georgia, 5-4, in 11 innings.

As is true to any Servais coached team, the 2011 Bluejays thrived on the team-game concept, highlighted by solid defense and offensive execution. The Bluejays led the MVC and finished fourth in the nation in fielding percentage (.980), led by first baseman Nick Judkins, who finished with just two errors in 596 chances. Trever Adams provided the power for the Bluejays, earning All-America nods from Baseball America, NCBWA and Collegiate Baseball after finishing the season with a .387 batting average, 14 homers and 57 runs driven in. Mike Gerber earned Freshman All-American honors from Collegiate Baseball after stepping in as the everyday starting center fielder, playing flawless defense and blasting a .488 slugging percentage. On the mound, Creighton finished the season as one of three teams (Creighton, Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech) with two pitchers with 10 wins and 100 strikeouts. Dufek finished with a 12-1 record (128 strikeouts) while southpaw standout Ty Blach held a 10-3 record (100 strikeouts). Junior Kurt Spomer finished in second place on the single-season charts with 13 saves on the year.

Servais was named the MVC Coach of the Year for the fourth time in his career, highlighting the MVC awards handed out to the Bluejays following the season. Dufek, Adams and Jimmy Swift were named first teamers, while Blach, Gerber and Spomer were named to the second team. Blach also became just the seventh Creighton baseball player to garner CoSIDA Academic All-American honors.

The 2011 season marked the opening of Creighton's current home field, as well as the home of the Men's College World Series, Charles Schwab Field Omaha.

2012 Major League Baseball Draft

5th Rd. (178)	Ty Blach, LHP	San Francisco Giants
22nd Rd. (611)	Anthony Bemboom, C	Los Angeles Angels

Entering the MVC Tournament with a disappointing 22-28 record, few outside of Omaha gave the Bluejays a chance to defend their 2011 MVC title. Not only did the Bluejays prove their doubters wrong, they did it in dominant fashion with a win over the No. 1 seed, Indiana State (5-0) on May 22.

The Bluejays followed with 11-5 and 10-3 wins over Illinois State, advancing to a championship matchup with Southern Illinois on May 26. Creighton took the matchup with the Salukis by a 8-6 score, plating four runs in the bottom of the seventh to capture the MVC's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

Ty Blach

Creighton drew the second-ranked UCLA Bruins in the opening game, falling to Bruins' ace Adam Plutko in a two-hit shutout, 3-0. Facing elimination, the Bluejays responded with six runs in the first four innings to seize control against San Diego. Senior Shane Liska held the Toreros to one run on three hits over five innings, while his senior Anthony Bemboom delivered a 2-for-5, three RBI day at the plate. The ensuing day brought another elimination game, this one against New Mexico on June 3. Bemboom stepped to the forefront once more in the first inning, smacking a three-run home run to put the Bluejays out in front. Staked to a 3-0 lead, senior Erik Mattingly held the Lobos to two runs on three hits in six innings. The Bluejay offense tacked on two more runs in the fourth and the fifth innings to claim the 7-2 victory, setting up a rematch with the Bruins.

Creighton continued its early offense with two runs in the first against UCLA, but the Bruins matched it with two in the bottom half, then plated five in the third as the Bruins eliminated Creighton, 13-5. Junior Ty Blach, who tossed a shutout against Indiana State to start the Bluejays postseason run, was selected in the fifth round of the MLB draft, while Bemboom went in the 22nd round to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Bemboom was the lone Bluejay to claim postseason accolades, taking home All-MVC Second Team honors.

2019 Corvallis (Ore.) Regional

Entering the 2019 season with more power and offensive potential than most Bluejay squads during his tenure, head coach Ed Servais let his team blast away. The result was 67 home runs, the most under a team guided by Servais and the highest for a Bluejay squad since the 1999 team launched 77. The high-powered offense led directly to victories as the Bluejays went 29-4 in games they hit at least one home run. Creighton closed the season with a 41-13 mark, including 14-4 in the BIG EAST to claim the Bluejays' regular-season crown. Reaching the conference tournament as the top seed for the third time, the Bluejays blazed through the other three teams. Creighton bested Seton Hall 10-9 in the opening round, defeated St. John's 17-13 in the semifinals, then defeated Xavier 9-8 to claim the conference's automatic berth.

After dropping the opening round matchup with Michigan and facing elimination, an explosive third inning (three runs on three hits, including a leadoff home run by junior Isaac Collins) and a strong pitching performance from senior Evan Johnson (5.1 innings of three-hit ball) and junior John Sakowski (3.2 innings of scoreless relief) lifted the Bluejays past defending national champion Oregon State.

The Bluejays followed up with a 6-1 victory over Cincinnati to force a rematch with eventual MCWS runner-up Michigan. Trailing 7-4 in the top of the ninth, the Bluejays bats came alive, scoring seven runs in the frame to take an 11-7 lead and force another game. Creighton's season, however, came to an end as Michigan plated five in the bottom of the fourth inning and another six in the seventh inning to eliminate the Bluejays, 17-6.

Senior Mitch Ragan was named the BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year, with an 8-3 record in 99.1 innings of work, while junior Jake Holton claimed BIG EAST Player of the Year honors with a .463 batting average in conference play.

Creighton earned the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year award for the second time in four seasons, while Collins earned a spot on the BIG EAST First Team hitting .293 on the season. Four Bluejays claimed All-BIG EAST Second Team honors with the recognition going to seniors pitchers Denson Hull (4-1, 1.78 ERA) and Evan Johnson (4-2, 2.43 ERA) as well as outfielders Will Robertson (hitting .325 with five homers in conference play) and Jared Wegner, who posted a .340 batting average in conference action.

Following the season, an impressive six Bluejays were taken in the 2019 MLB Draft. Robertson, who led the team with 15 home runs and a team-best 67 RBI, was the first of three Bluejays taken on the second day of the draft. Robertson was selected in the fourth round by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Collins went in the ninth round to the Colorado Rockies. Holton, who led the squad with a .386 batting average and 80 hits, was taken in the 10th round by the Detroit Tigers. The third day of the MLB Draft saw Ragan go in the 15th round to the New York Mets, senior Jack Strunc go in the 25th round to the Miami Marlins and Hull earn a 29th round selection by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame

The Creighton University Athletics Hall of Fame added the first squad to its ranks as the 1991 Creighton Baseball team was inducted in 2016. The 1991 Bluejays reached the College World Series and finished with a 51-22 record, including a 9-4 mark in the postseason. The 51-win total remains a Creighton program record for victories in a season. Creighton finished 1991 as the nation's top offense, hitting a school-record .355 during the year. The Bluejays also broke and still hold school records for runs (667), hits (904), RBI (611), doubles (184), triples (60), home runs (107), total bases (1,529) and slugging percentage (.601). Every Creighton regular hit .330 or higher during the team's remarkable offensive season.

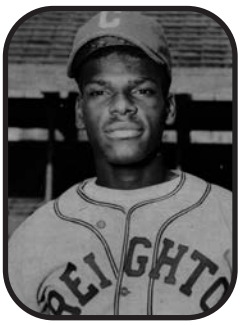
Bluejays in the Pros



Throughout the years, Creighton has sent numerous players into the professional ranks, including 26 that have reached baseball's ultimate stage (MLB). The most recent additions to this illustrious group are Elliot Soto (2020), Anthony Bemboom (2019), Nicky Lopez (2019), Mike Gerber (2018), Ty Blach (2016), Pat Venditte (2015) and Darin Ruf (2012).

This group is highlighted by one of baseball's greatest pitchers of all time, Bob Gibson (left). Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1981, Gibson, delivered a stellar 17-year career with the St. Louis Cardinals. After concluding his collegiate career at Creighton in 1957, Gibson went on to win 251 games, record 3,117 strikeouts and win two World Series Championships with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Bluejays had several other players enjoy long careers. Dennis Rasmussen played 13 seasons for five different teams, putting up a career 4.15 ERA with 91 wins. Scott Servais played 11 seasons with four teams, hitting .245 with 63 home runs and 319 RBI. He began his managerial career with the Seattle Mariners in 2016.

Ruf made his debut in the fall of 2012 with the Philadelphia Phillies, playing a combined nine seasons for the Phillies, San Francisco Giants, New York Mets and Milwaukee Brewers.

Alan Benes pitched eight seasons, posting 13 wins in his rookie season with the St. Louis Cardinals. Benes, who serves as a scout with the Cardinals, was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dave McKay played eight seasons with three teams, holding a career .229 batting average and driving in 170 runs. McKay later enjoyed a long coaching career with the Oakland Athletics, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs and presently with the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Kimera Bartee spent six seasons in the majors, splitting time between Detroit and Cincinnati. He finished with a .216 average in 243 games played.

Blach not only debuted in 2016, he was added to the San Francisco Giants playoff roster in 2016 and was San Francisco's opening day starter in 2018. Over six seasons at the MLB level, Blach pitched for the Giants, Baltimore Orioles and Colorado Rockies in 2023.

Nicky Lopez enters the 2024 season (his sixth overall) with 544 games played. He played the bulk of his career with the Kansas City Royals, but was traded to Atlanta during the 2023 season. In the offseason he was sent to the Chicago White Sox.

Bemboom appeared in games for both Tampa Bay and the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in 2019. Bemboom remained active during portions of the 2020-23 seasons playing for the Angels, Rays and Baltimore Orioles in 2023.

Scott Stahoviak, one of four first round picks in Creighton history, played five seasons for the Minnesota Twins, belting 27 home runs and driving in 119 runs. Stahoviak may be best remembered by Creighton fans for his play during the 1991 season as he led the Bluejays to the College World Series.

Venditte appeared in his first contest at Fenway Park with the Oakland Athletics during the summer of 2015, seeing action in five different seasons.

Chad Meyers played four seasons for the Chicago Cubs and Seattle Mariners.

Mike Mahoney spent three seasons in the majors with the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals, finishing his major league career with 18 hits and 10 RBI in 46 games played.

The remaining 14 former Bluejays played two seasons or less, including recent alumni such as Gerber for the Detroit Tigers in 2018 and the San Francisco Giants in 2019. Soto appeared in three games for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in 2020.

A total of 39 former Bluejays have been drafted since Ed Servais took the helm of Creighton baseball in 2004.

A pair of players were taken during the 2022 MLB Draft. Alan Roden became the highest draft pick under coach Servais, taken in the third round overall by the Toronto Blue Jays. Joining Roden in the 2022 draft was Dylan Tebrake in the eighth round.

The 2019 season was the most prolific, with six former Bluejays taken in the MLB Draft, led by Will Robertson in the fourth round.

Since joining the BIG EAST, Creighton has had 23 Bluejays drafted. Three Bluejays were selected in the 2014 draft, led by Jake Peter. Peter went to the Chicago White Sox in the seventh round. Mike Gerber followed in the 15th round to the Detroit Tigers, while Bryan Sova went to the Philadelphia Phillies in the 25th.

Another trio of Creighton players were selected in both 2016 and 2017, led by the fifth round selection of Nicky Lopez by the Kansas City Royals in 2016. Five Creighton players went in 2018.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression.

Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for the past 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays - locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CHI Health Center Omaha.

McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Marcus Blossom

Marcus Blossom is in his third year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director at Creighton.

Creighton has enjoyed historic levels of success in Blossom's first two years on the job, as Bluejay teams have made 11 postseason appearances.

Creighton men's soccer featured MAC Hermann Trophy Award winner Duncan McGuire and advanced to the College Cup (2022). Creighton's men's basketball (2023) and women's basketball (2022) teams both reached the Elite Eight. Creighton's Volleyball team won its eighth and ninth consecutive regular-season BIG EAST titles, earning a national seed and hosting NCAA Tournament action in both seasons.

The accomplishments didn't end there. Women's golfer Katherine Lemke became CU's first BIG EAST individual champion and postseason qualifier (2022 and 2023), and Tommy Ward represented the Creighton Men's Track program in the NCAA Regionals (2023).

On the coaching side rowing's Dan Chipps (2022) and women's golf's Debbie Conry (2022), in addition to men's and women's tennis' Tom Lilly (2023) all were named Conference Coach of the Year for the first time after more than 20 years on the job.

The work performed by Bluejay student-athletes in the classroom also featured excellence across the board. The men's cross country program owned the nation's best GPA in 2021-22. CU had four programs recognized by the BIG EAST with 2021-22 Team Academic Excellence Awards, then three more teams earned the accolade in 2022-23. CU student-athletes owned a 3.48 GPA in the spring of 2023.

As athletic director at Holy Cross, Blossom led the development of the athletics department's first strategic plan, with a focus on creating a high-performance culture, achieving and sustaining competitive excellence, and increasing ticket sales, external support and community engagement, while also enhancing facilities.

Under his leadership, academic success within the Holy Cross athletics program was among the very best in the nation, ranking first for graduation success rate, with the school receiving more than a dozen Division I Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards from the NCAA. Several teams at Holy Cross posted multiyear APR scores in the top 10% of all squads in their respective sports.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Blossom spent five years at Boston College as senior associate athletics director for business and administration. While there, he was a member of the executive team and assisted with all aspects of strategic planning and vision execution for the department of athletics.

Blossom has a deep background with Jesuit higher education, and he is no stranger to the BIG EAST, having spent two years with Providence College as associate athletic director for business operations. Earlier in his career, he also served as assistant director of championships for the NCAA, managing the complex process of championship host-city selection, among other duties.

Blossom, who is from Chicago and has strong Midwestern ties, earned his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance at Northeastern University, a Master's Degree in Sport Management from West Virginia University and an MBA from the University of Rhode Island. While earning his undergraduate degree at Northeastern University, Blossom was a three-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District and three-time all-conference selection in men's basketball. Blossom and his wife, Karli, have two daughters, Maya and Mora.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD, is the 25th president of Creighton University. A former student, faculty member, and trustee of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson is guided by a deep passion for the Creighton mission to form leaders that will go on to build a more just world.

Fr. Hendrickson first encountered Creighton as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in the 1996 before returning to teach at the University from 2000 to 2003. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013, elected president of Creighton in December 2014, and began his tenure July 1, 2015.

Prior to serving as Creighton University president, he held positions at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania; Fordham University in New York; and Marquette University in 2012.

During his presidency, the University has grown its enrollment, welcoming record-breaking classes of more than 1,000 first-year students each year. Additionally, an increase in student support efforts has helped Creighton achieve a 99% outcome rate for graduates.

The University has also achieved greater national recognition in academics, athletics, and scholarship, including a 31 percent increase in endowed chair positions with 12 being created since 2015. In 2021, Creighton became home to the only Catholic medical school campus west of Omaha, with a Phoenix location ultimately educating approximately 1,000 health sciences students.

Additionally, with Fr. Hendrickson's leadership, Creighton launched its most ambitious fundraising campaign, Forward Blue, in 2021 in support of scholarships, campus improvements, and mission-driven services and programs. As of 2023, the campaign has raised more than $600 million, including nearly $200 million in scholarship dollars.

Outside of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University as well as serving as the current chair of the BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors. He is also a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral (CESI) in the Dominican Republic; and Jesuit Worldwide Learning (JWL).

Growing up in Fremont, Nebraska, Fr. Hendrickson graduated from Mount Michael Benedictine High School in Elkhorn. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., D.Phil., is an associate professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan C. Hendrickson, Ph.D., is dean of the Graduate School and vice provost for sponsored research at Eastern Illinois University.

Fr. Hendrickson holds a BA from Marquette University; an MA in philosophical resources from Fordham University; a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University; and MA and PhD degrees from Columbia University.

Creighton's Championship Center Features Academic Resource Center

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened its Championship Center, a facility that will benefit all student-athletes for years to come. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, the Championship Center is highlighted by the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center, the Doug McDermott Player Lounge and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

The Parker Family Academic Resource Center features private meeting and study rooms with access to tutors, a computer lab, wireless internet, couches, tables, chairs and many more resources to help Bluejay student-athletes make the most of their time.

College World Series

The NCAA Division I Men's College World Series has called Omaha home every year since 1950 and Creighton University serves as the host institution for the event. Annually drawing more than 300,000 fans to the 11-day event, the Men's College World Series is one of the nation's premier sporting events, matching college baseball's top eight teams in a double-elimination tournament for the national championship. The 2024 MCWS will be the 75th in Omaha and is scheduled for June 14-24 at Charles Schwab Field Omaha.

BIG EAST Conference

The Creighton baseball team begins its 12th season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference in 2024. Creighton was a member of the Missouri Valley Conference from 1977-2013 season. Prior to joining The Valley, the Bluejays played as an independent.

Endowed Scholarships

Through the generosity of its supporters, Creighton has established endowed scholarships that are awarded to student-athletes on a yearly basis. These scholarships go toward helping student-athletes who have completed their athletic eligibility. Below are the names of donors with endowed scholarships that are available to baseball players:

Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua

Inducted into the Creighton University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1988, Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua became the first person associated with Creighton athletics to be honored by the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame when he was presented the MVC Award of Merit at the Hall of Fame induction ceremonies Sept. 1, 1998, in St. Louis. Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua was Creighton's volunteer team physician for 32 years (1962-82, 1986-98) until his passing in October of 1998.

Jaybackers

The booster group for Creighton Athletics, the Jaybackers, contributed over $5.0 million to the athletic department last year.

MVC All-Centennial Team

As part of its centennial celebration, the Missouri Valley Conference named a baseball all-centennial team in 2007. Creighton was well-represented, as nine Bluejays were selected.

Tony Roth

Zach Daeges

Tony Roth (2002-05) was one of five players selected at second base. Scott Servais (1986-88) at catcher and Zach Daeges (2003-06) at third base were each one of only four players selected at their positions.

The 1991 National Player of the Year Scott Stahoviak (1989-91) was selected as a utility player. Oneri Fleita (1987-88) was voted to the team as one of four designated hitters. In the outfield, Dave Schrage (1980-83) was chosen as one of nine outfielders.

Alan Benes (1991-93) and Dan Smith (1988-90) were voted onto the team as starting pitchers. Steve Grasley (2001-04) received the nod as a reliever.

USA Baseball

Six Bluejay baseball players -- Chad McConnell, Chad Meyers, Brian O'Connor, Dennis Rasmussen, Scott Servais and Dan Smith -- as well as former head coach Jim Hendry and current head coach Ed Servais have represented the United States in international competition. Servais served as an assistant coach for Team USA during its summer competitions in Japan in 2013.

Scott Servais was a member of the gold-medal winning baseball team at the 1988 Seoul Olympics.

glensisk@creighton.edu

Members of the media covering baseball home games should contact Creighton Baseball's Sports Information Director Glen Sisk to request credentials at least 48 hours prior to the game.

Credentials for the Charles Schwab Park Omaha games may be picked up at the stadium's will call window.

Interviews

All interviews are to be coordinated through Glen Sisk. Typically Coach Servais and his players will not be available for interviews prior to games, rather Servais and selected players will be available for interviews postgame.

Photo Policy

Only accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Copies of the rosters will be available in the media area. Photographers are not permitted on the field of play, but photographers will be allowed in the camera pits in both dugouts.

Phone Lines

TV Coverage

Creighton baseball games have been consistently televised since Ed Servais came to Creighton. The Bluejays have been seen on FS1, FS2, Fox, ESPN, CBS Sports Network as well as locally on Cox and Nebraska Public Media.

Video Stream and Radio

Beyond the televised broadcasts, the remaining home games are available on Flo Sports via FloBaseball.tv.

The talented crew of John Bishop, Connor Happer, Nick Handley, Kevin McNabb and Alex Sindelar will share broadcast responsibilities for games on gocreighton.com and commercial radio on 1180 am.
